Read the story below.

Jake and Anna just landed on the moon. Jake couldn't wait to climb out of the spaceship and look around. "Come on Anna, let's go explore," Jake yelled to Anna. But, Anna was too scared to get out of the spaceship. "What if there's an alien out there?" Anna asked. She started to cry. Jake told Anna that there weren't any aliens on the moon and she would be fine. Anna finally agreed to climb out of the spaceship. Jake and Anna walked around on the moon and watched as they left their footprints. They also turned to look at Earth. It was so beautiful from the moon. Jake and Anna collected a big bag of moon rocks to take home to their families.

Finally, they climbed back into the spaceship to head home. Anna was glad that she got out of the spaceship and walked on the moon.
